The color hurts, It blinds my eyes.
With mystic words, They hypnotize
And you know it's true.

Look up to the sunset,
And notice that I'm fine
It's never understanding
And it's a flaw of yours and mine
Oh yeah,

I cannot speak, Can't find words to say.
But I'm improving more everyday
And it's all for you

Heavy is the head
Of the man who wears the crown
Who's been lost for oh so long
But now I've finally found a way.

What have they said, All hypocrisy
Their evil cuts so deep into me.
Because it's so untrue.

Hand of god is overrated
Time's not gone it's devastated
Evil is more complicated
You told another lie.
