Pushed up, against the wall
Watch the hands, on the clock fall
Unruly chaos gathering, faithless boy
Left wondering.

Keep me out of the storm
Father, keep me out of the storm.

Rest your neck
Your time is coming
Watch the sands, rush
Through the hourglass.
Step back your faith
Is failing fast, steadfast
You know he's coming back.

As I realize in my mind
I hesitate over compensate
As I contemplate, my relationship with you.

Severance, you have been cutoff, you've made, you're choice
Now live with it.
Sentenced an eternal commitment,
You've made you bed,
Now lie in it.
