Everything's a blessing in disguise
You wear yours
I'll wear mine

Everything's a blessing in disguise
Falling to rise

The vanishing me is aching to be something you need

ThinÂ...
Thin as a strand
She stands at the edge
and pulls me back in Thin as a strand
She stands at the edge
and does what she can
to pull me backÂ... in Everything's a blessing in disguise
We've got time

Everything's a blessing in disguise
You're all I want
and maybe you,
You don't make me say it
You don't make me say it

ThinÂ...
Thin as a strand
She stands at the edge
and pulls me back in Thin as a strand
She stands at the edge
and does what she can
to pull me backÂ... in
