I've got a tricked-out receiver and I think it's built to win I've got one chance to receive her voice translucent, delicate

Breakdown! Breakout! Eleanor
I think your loneliness is code
It symbolizes every man
who's empty as a hole

Eleanor... I'm waiting for you

I've got a number to call you back but I think "leave well-enough alone"

I chased a shoestring to a heart-attack closeted everything I own

Come down! Crash land! Eleanor
I think your loneliness is code
It symbolizes every man
who's empty as a hole

Eleanor... I'm waiting for you

Flagship...
Come down...
Crash land...
My town...

Eleanor... I'm waiting for you
