Do you think that people get tired of themselves?
Is that why the T.V.æŠ- on all the time?
It donæŠ° take much to get it right back on track,
but it wonæŠ° fall from the sky right into your lap.

IæŠ³e made the most of Luck.
You get a brand new chance
in a brand new town.
And if I donæŠ° read what they wrote about me,
I might turn you on to something IæŠ³e found:

Silence. Priceless. Silence.
The only way we talk.

What if people get everything they expect?
What becomes of hope?
IæŠ£I bet sheæŠ- a nervous wreck.
WhataæŠ- the genius in a cushion on your couch?
You better find yourself something that drags you out.

IæŠ³e made the most of Love.
You get a brand new chance in a brand new town.
And if I donæŠ° hear what they whisper about me,
I might turn you on to something IæŠ³e found:

Silence. Priceless. Silence.
The only way we talk.
