Don't you worry about a club just come and lay up
under me tonight

I was out shopping thinking of something I should get you
Cause I've been gone so many weeks, damn I missed
you
Don't wanna do nothing more than just stare at your face
And let you know I'm happy you're my best friend
Part of this fortune boy I owe you
For being always here to talk to
Taking time out starting with today for my babe

We're gonna hit the floor at home
We'll let the candles be your light tonight
And Imma DJ all of your songs
You ain't gotta worry about a club just come and lay up
under me tonight

Oh, boy if you just called I'm on my way
When it comes to my baby I bring my best
It's just you and me all night Don't worry about no club just come and lay up under
me tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Don't worry about no club just come and lay up under
me tonight

Let's pop a bottle of the vintage that I've brought you
I'll model sexy pictures right on top of you 10 years together still feels like we're making love for the first time
Like I'm in high school sneaking with my boyfriend
Part of this fortune boy I owe you
For being always here to talk to
Taking time out starting with today for my babe

We'll let the candles be your light tonight
Well, Imma DJ all of your songs
You ain't gotta worry about a club just come and lay up
under me tonight
We're gonna hit the floor at home
We'll let the candles be your light tonight
Boy, Imma DJ all of your songs
You ain't gotta worry about a club just come and lay up
under me tonight

Boy, if you just call I'm on my way
When it comes to my baby I bring my best
I just wanna party tonight
Cause it obvious to see that you are where I wanna be

Just let me look at you
Ooh, you look so sexy
Boy, I wanna taste
You already know which way
When I groove with you
Ooh, you feel so good
Boy, your my favorite place
Just come and lay under me

We're gonna hit the floor at home
We'll let the candles be your light tonight
Imma DJ all of your songs
You ain't gotta worry about no club just come and lay up under me tonight
We're gonna hit the floor at home
We'll let the candles be your light tonight
Well, Imma DJ all of your songs
You ain't gotta worry about a club just come and lay up
under me tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
You ain't gotta worry about a club just come and lay up
under me tonight
