Good people of this town, you'd do well to gather 'round

There is something here to say
A good man died here on this day You'd do well to know his name And it's here his gravestone lays

He was free and the soldiers didn't understand
When he returned and gave his life for another man

Calvin Crozier
they made him dig his grave
Calvin Crozier
then they shot him where he lay
then the soldiers danced
Well they danced all night
On the shallow grave of Calvin Crozier

He had fought for four long years Seen his share of blood and tears
He had earned his long ride home
In a box car for the night Union soldiers for delight came to make their presence known

When he returned and gave his life for another man

Calvin Crozier
they made him dig his grave
Calvin Crozier
then they shot him where he lay
then the soldiers danced
well they danced all night
On the shallow grave of Calvin Crozier
