Echoing voices I can hear, they whisper to me my every fear

A taste of what to me you've done, this battle I've lost and now I'm done

My broken heart, it still remains,
Your face still haunts me everyday These wounds that linger deep inside
The scars that form I can not hide

I can't take this anymore, all my feelings you ignore You're sheltered behind all your lies, empty words I can't abide

I can't face this fact I'm torn, suffering underneath your scorn

The nothing you've left consumes my mind, my sanity I've yet to find

The hate that I now feel for you, it somehow helps to get me through The beast that lives within my chest, somehow always liked you best

I can't take this anymore, all my feelings you ignore
You're sheltered behind all your lies, empty words I

Feelings Left inside
Made to make me feel like I'm nothing I'm nothing

fear

A taste of what to me you've done...
I'm torn
