Looks like I'm gonna do everything myself

Maybe I could use some help

but hell, you want something done right

you gotta do it yourself

Maybe life is up and down

but my life's been (what?)

till now

I crawled up your butt somehow

and that's when things got turned around

I used to be alive

Now I feel pathetic

and now I get it

What's done is done

You just leave it alone and don't regret it

But sometimes, some things turn into dumb things

and that's when you need to put your foot down

Why did I have to go and meet somebody like you?

(Like you)

Why did you have to go and hurt somebody like me?

(Like me)

How could you do somebody like that?

(Like that)

Hope you know that I'm never coming back

(Never coming back)

Looks like I'm gonna do everything myself

(Everything myself)

Maybe I could use some help

but hell, if you want something done right

you just do it yourself

(Got it?)

Maybe life is up and down

but my life's been (what?)

till now (got it)

I crawled up your butt somehow (got it)

and that's when shit got turned around (got it)

I used to be alive

I'm so pathetic

but now I get it

What's done is done

I know you just leave it alone and don't regret it

But sometimes some things turn into dumb things

and that's when you have to put your foot down

Why did I have to meet somebody like you?

Why did you have to hurt somebody like me?

How could you do somebody like that?

Hope you know that I'm never comin' back

Why did I have to meet somebody like you?

Why did you have to hurt somebody like me?

How could you do somebody like that?

Hope you know that I'm never comin' back

Depending on you is done

Giving to you is done

No more eating, no sleeping, no living

It's all just more giving to you

and I'm done

Depending on you is done

Giving to you is done

No more reaching, no sleeping, no living

It's all just forgiving to you

and I'm done

The hiding from you is done

The lying on you is done

No more eating, no more sleeping, no living

It's all just more giving to you

and I'm done

Why did I have to meet somebody like you?

Why did you have to hurt somebody like me?

How could you do somebody like that?

I know you know that I'm never coming back

Why did I have to meet somebody like you?

Why did you have to hurt somebody like me?

How could you do somebody like that?

I hope you know that I'm never coming back

Why? Why? Why
