Lately I've been skeptical

Silent when I would used to speak

Distance from all around me

Who witness me fail and become weak

Life is overwhelming

Heavy is the head that wears the crown

I'd love to be the one to disappoint you when I don't fall down

But you don't understand when I'm attempting to explain

Because you know it all and I guess things will never change

But you might need my hand when falling in your hole

Your disposition I'll remember when I'm letting go

You and me we're through

And rearranged

It seems that you're not satisfied

There's too much on your mind

So you leave and I can't believe all the bullshit that I find

Life is overwhelming

Heavy is the head that wears the crown

down

But you don't understand when I'm attempting to
explain

change

But you might need my hand when falling in your hole

Your disposition I'll remember when I'm letting go

You and me we're through

And rearranged

You're no good

For me

Thank God its over

You make believe

That nothing is wrong until you're cryin'

You make believe

That life is so long until you're dyin'

You make believe

That nothing is wrong until you're cryin'

Cryin' on me

You make believe

That life is so long until you're dyin'

Dyin' on me!

You think everybody's the same

You think that everybody's the same

I don't think that anybody's like you

(You ruin everything and you kept fuckin' with me until its over and I won't)

You think that everybody's the same

Be the same

Just think about it

You'll get it
