All the years I placed blame
Put a crown on my head
I spent days pointing out what my mind was reading
No one will ever tell me why
Because we live the same lie
Unexcused, so we kill ourselves
Let go
Gotta pretend I don't know
Look back, pulling mistakes from the past
Hold on, to fake inspiration
Retrace all the lies you misplaced
Now I know that I'm fucked cause I'm not protected
I realize I create walls until I feel a purpose
No one will ever tell me why
Cause we live the same lie
Self create misdirection without shame
Let go, gotta pretend I don't know
Look back pulling mistakes from the past Hold on, to fake inspiration
Retrace all the lies you misplaced
I can't explain the way it feels when your heart stops
Everything i thought would set me free was just bullshit
I sold myself
I can't breathe
Let go, gotta pretend I don't know
Look back, pulling mistakes from the past
Hold on, to fake inspiration
Retrace all the lies you misplaced
Hold on
