I'm amazed how well you handle defeat, for a rookie.
So lay back and just continue to sleep.
We'll tell you when they're long gone.
I solemnly swear to compete in the world if nothing is ever atoned.

Young blood, if given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood, destroy the old empire!

I'm amazed the way you handle the press, like a veteran.
Flies will swarm and bees will crowd for incest.
They want to document all your time.
I solemnly swear to compete in the world if nothing is ever atoned.

Young blood, if given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood, destroy the old empire!
Young blood, if given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood, empires fade, so hold on to the money that you made.

Long gone, I solemnly swear to compete in the world if nothing is ever atoned.

Young blood, if given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood, destroy the old empire!
Young blood, if given the chance, spit fire!
Youn blood, if given the choice, never let them silence your voice!
