WARPAINT

(Howard Greenfield / Barry Mann)

Brook Brothers - 1961

Darling, oh Darling, you're not the same.....

With your lipstick, powder and paint
You're all dressed up like a-what-a-you ain't
You spray your hair a different shade
We're goin' to a movie, not a masquerade Warpaint, warpaint, you don't need-a warpaint,
warpaint
Can't you see you're not goin' to fight a war
You're only goin' out with the boy next door

When you put your head on my chest
You get lipstick on my vest
You may think that you look cute
I don't think it's funny when you ruin my suit
Warpaint, warpaint, you don't need-a warpaint,
warpaint
Can't you see you're not goin' to fight a war
You're only goin' out with the boy next door

(Instrumental Break)

Darling, you're not a hopeless case
Just go in the house and wash your face
There's still time and there's still hope
Let me introduce you to a cake of soap
Warpaint, warpaint, you don't need-a warpaint,
warpaint
Can't you see you're not goin' to fight a war
You're only goin' out with the boy next door

Warpaint, warpaint, you don't need-a warpaint,
warpaint
Can't you see you're not goin' to fight a war
You're only goin' out with the boy next door
Warpaint, warpaint, wooh-ah-woh

Warpaint, warpaint, wooh-ah-woh
Warpaint, warpaint, wooh-ah-woh
Warpaint!
