Get our for time served, but a good dog must know its place
For those who piss in their own food cannot complain about the taste

New groups are not concerned With the sickness that must be burned Leisure jeans, what a scream!
Riding with Hitler in a limousine

History asserts itself with a cruel confidence
Mouthing Marx for ad copy - in the service of capital Running dog your belly is full, but your teeth have broken off
Beware the time spent behind enemy lines - in the service of capital

The generators pull constant, ripping substance from its context Liquidate the opposition with an acquisition of its content
The science of absorption, innovations of a dying beast Traveling at light-speed, capital's international conspiracy Negotiate for prime time, victory will be your concession
For the engineers are well versed in the dark arts of possession

History asserts itself with a cruel confidence
Mouthing Marx for ad copy - in the service of capital Running dog your belly is full, but your teeth have
broken off
Beware the time spent behind enemy lines - in the service of capital

We will gladly feast on those who would subdue us An action call to ghetto defenders, fortify the barricades Protein shakes and hand grenades, set sack to the palisades

We'll choose to move in the shadows, poisoning the well by night
Articulate your venom, anything not to give up the fight Theory ends when Westworld falls, New Barbarian battle call Das capital, das capital, your enemies run deep
