I said that one day I'd be something and everyone would soon be proud of me I'd sit and watch the day go by and think of all the things I'd like to be So many of my dreams have gone and now I'm only left with emptiness There's nothing that can make me better, Nothing that can take away this pain

Chorus:

And I wonder what you'd say if I were gone
Would you cry? Did you even notice something wrong?

I often wonder what's to live for. I just want this pain to go away
All I have are fading memories, pieces of my broken yesterday
Every drop of blood meant something
And every ounce He she'd was she'd for me Here I am, I'm waiting for You, crying out. I've fallen to my knees

(Chorus)
