"Daylight Bleeds"

can you tell me what you see can you offer me some help the situation has turned and everything's gone with it I can't explain what it is but there's something within I want so much to live my body has nothing more to give daylight bleeds and drowns a good man if only the sun could fall on the faces of everyone eyes separated and distant from the soul within the broken vessels clutch makes dense the fog the sun and moon dance again as the door he opens
can you tell me what you see?
can you tell me what you believe?
