Remember all the ways you
Used to look at me
Now it seems as though you've
Nothing left to see

The change it happened slowly
Right before our eyes
No matter how you hold me
I can't lie

It's not you it's not me
There's nothing left between us
It's not right it's not fair
In the end we'll never care
This love has faded away
Not you, it's not me, no, not today

Is this a game we're playing
We're fooling everyone
What's the point in staying
There's nowhere left to run

Holding back our feelings
We keep it all inside
It's only us we're cheating
Please don't lie

It's not you it's not me
It's not right it's not fair
In the end we'll never care
This love has faded away
Not you, it's not me, no, not today

Satisfaction's nearing
Letting go you sigh
What is this I'm hearing
No more lies

It's not you it's not me

It's not right it's not fair
In the end we'll never care

It's not you it's not me
It's not right it's not fair
In the end we'll never care
This love has faded away
Not you, it's not me, no

It's not you, not me
It's not right it's not fair
In the end we'll never care
This love has faded away
