Jada stands on the edge of a mountain
Jada see's freedom waiting in the wind
Jada stands on the edge of a mountain
Jada don't know that that's not a leap of faith

Jada thinks all the ones that jumped before her
Were freedom bound, but she don't know they lost it all
Jada thinks that her chains can't be broken
Jada don't know, someone died to set her free

Jada stands on the edge of a mountain
Jada see's freedom waiting in the wind
