one stands guiltless
a growing darkness surrounds
a glimpse of light shines through
no one is innocent
it tears away all that I am
it tears away all of me
His blood flows forever the One and only innocent
it tears away all I could be it tears away all that I was
it tears away all of me
