You've been found out.
Save that sunken smile for someone else.
Not the first time
You take be off the back-born shelf, on reserve.

Took what you learned and then wrote me in.
Pour us a glass and then drink from his...

But tonight I'll let it slide,
I'll be yours and you'll be mine,
I'll be your B-side baby.
I'll be your B-side, baby, but I want you to be by my side tonight!

Throw your head in the ground,
Tell me all that you see.
Is the sunset or snowfall the same as it was when you were here
Sweating next to me?

Took what you learned and then wrote me in
Pour us a glass and then drink from his,
Cause I'm your B-side baby
I'm your B-side, baby, but I want you to be by my side
tonight.

Brush your hair in me eyes.
A perfume blinder that keeps away the light
There is no way in hell that those peaches are real,
But they're here, and gonna get me tonight.

Took what you learned and then wrote me in.
Pour us a glass and then drink from hisÂ

But tonight I'll let it slide,
I'll be yours and you'll be mine,
I'll be your B-side baby.
I'll be your B-side, baby, but I want you to be by my side...
