Under the watertower, I pulled my birthday flower
And hung it on the sink.

I'm feelin okay, but I just need my man to say
I'm the prettiest thing -

Not today, he's away (3x)

I'll drive through the night
I'll walk through my dress
Thinkin about my head on your chest
When morning comes.

I watch the candles melt into this little cake
My wish will come true! Â
I blew...

Ooooh...

Not today, he's away (3x)

I'll drive through the night
I'll walk through my dress
Thinkin about my head on your chest
When morning comes.

I'll drive through the night
I'll walk through my dress
Thinkin about my head on your chest
When morning comes.
