If I stay another day
Nothing ever changes
Don't give you sympathy
To someone that never tries
If I could only walk
In your shoes for a day
To see thought you
How you see me...

I hiding from my self
I try to deny
It all keeps coming back
And haunting me
I wanna live another life
With possibilities
It all will change
I'll have to find another way
I wanna live another life
With possibilities
It all will change
I'll have to find another way

It's the same old thing
Just another day
I am tired of it all
Wish it all go away
I find my self
Never listening
Well that's how it goes
Wish it all could change...

I hiding from my self
I try to deny
It all keeps coming back
And haunting me
I wanna live another life
With possibilities
It all will change
I'll have to find another way
I wanna live another life
With possibilities
It all will change

I'll have to find another way

I find my self
Out of touch
Nothing makes since
Anymore
We'll all gone
Out to find my way
Way out here

I wanna live another life
With possibilities
It all will change
I'll have to find another way
I wanna live another life
With possibilities
It all will change
I'll have to find another way

I wanna live another life
We can never change
Yer yer...
Yer yer...
