How can you live with yourself
After everything you did to me?
And now you sit and cry a million tears
Sipping your alcohol, thinking of yourself
And how the world around is gone
And I know there's something wrong

Is there something on your mind?
Is there something wrong with me?
If there's something you can talk to me
Talk to me

I see it in your eyes, I've seen it everyday
I did everything I could for you
But then you looked away, and you kept it all inside
You let the world around just fade
And I know there's something wrong

Is there something on your mind?
Is there something wrong with me?
If there's something you can talk to me
Talk to me

(solo)

Is there something on your mind?
Is there something wrong with me?
If there's something you can talk to me
Talk to me,
Talk to me,
Talk to me, yeah
