Missy may you listen to your heart
Missy may your drifting take you far
It's the same with everyone
Cut off chasing the western sun
I took a chance to make it better, ended up drowning in a wishing well
I ain't likely to see you again, but God knows I still think about you now
Chorus
She wasn't able to save the story
So we ended up in a melted glory
Pushing off for the promised land,
Ended up stranded on the dessert sand Hey, think on you, well... The hell about it is the someone in your room
Chorus
