there's a problem with love,
it's stronger than drugs,
you get all you want
but that's never enough here.

you can search all your life,
make your girlfriend your wife,
then you cheat and you lie,
and expect something more tears.

you feel so awefull inside,
and sometimes wish you could die.
now you know love,
now you know love.

you feel so shitty inside,
and somehow wish you could die.
now you know love,
now you know love.
