early in the morning
i went out walking
in the rain
hoping it would cleanse me of this
deep and awful pain
i'm feeling

free and easy
feeling
free and easy while i can cause i've got no expectations of loving anyone again

half-way through the evening just before
you ran away
i could tell that you were leaving
but the words you
could not say
you're feeling

free and easy while you can cause you've got no expectations loving anyone again
