i've got the message
your out of your own head i've tried my hardest
to say this to you
it makes no difference
these words that
we've both said

that go in your ears
and they come out tears
it disappoints me that it takes such a long time i kicked the door down

i ran into your place
i dove inside her
i'm driven to you
i'm breathing fire
and screaming in your face i tried my hardest
means nothing to you

it goes in your ears
and it comes out some place else it makes no difference your in love with your own face

and it comes out tears
and disappoints me that it takes up all my time

it goes in your ear
and comes out tears
goodbye
