well i went over to his house to play but we didn't do a thing all day infact i never saw a guitar in his hand though i saw some people come and go what they was doing i don't know i tell you i don't want to understand all i can say

is i wat to play yay yeah.

i seen him walking down the street fancy pants baby look so neat had about 13 girls in tow and i saw him later at a club i said hello,do i know you bub.
and at this point i don't want to know

all i can say,
is
i want to play,hey hey yeah i'm hear to say so let me play hey hey yeah
