When I first saw him standin' there
I longed to speak but did not care
Something inside whispered to me
You'd better move in carefully
And then he smiled and turned away
That told me all he could not say
That's when I knew
He wanted me too
But I'd have to do some breakin' through
He's so shy, he's so shy
That sweet little boy who caught my eye
He's so shy, he's so shy
And he's much too good to let me get by
Oh, yes, he is
Now holding him gently through the night
Nothin' has ever felt so right
And I'm so glad I took the time
That I had to take to make him mine
He can still do things to my heart
Just like he did right from the start
Each time I see That quality
That never stops attracting me
He's so shy, he's so good looking
He's so shy, yes he's really got me going
That sweet little boy who caught my eye
He's so shy, I'm so glad I got to know him
He's so shy, cause he's one in a million
And I love him till the day I die
Oh, yes, I will
He's so shy, That's why I love my baby
He's so shy, I know it's drivin' me crazy
That sweet little boy who caught my eye
He's so shy, it took a long time to know him
He's so shy, and I'm glad get to show him
That I'll love him 'till the day I die
He's so shy, He's so shy
