But I'm lazy and it's there that I want to stay.

My boss calls me in , and I know what he'll say-

got a guitar, got a good home
...and I need more.

Ten years from now I'll be on the first trip to Mars, so I

So I got a new car, got a new phone
got a guitar, got a good home
...and I need more.

So I got a new car, got a new phone
got a guitar, got a good home
...and I need more.

So I got a new car, got a new phone
got a guitar, got a good home
...and I need more.
