Had something got nothing And I promise you your attitude's something I never wanted
Hope your happy finally got a song about you But now I am gone baby and theres nothing you can do As of lately going crazy Calling texting like you hate me got a new man to replace me and that bullshit that you told me still amaze me Used to say you love me that was fakesy you just like an actor how you play me with your plans to live happily ever after young fly chick and her boyfriend rapper Used to have me thinking love I found you But now when I'm around you shit I wanna Chris Brown you
So I'm gone, I'm leaving moving on Believe it I'm lebron You're Cleveland
Blowin up an you just won't be there You're frontin with your new man And he just don't compare You're faker than that new tan or that shit up in your hair
I'm sorry to be rude but I'm not even mad at you I'm on another latitude And I don't like your attitude

Dont mess with lovin' got close got nothin And I promise you your attitudes' somethin I never
wanted
Got nothin had somethin got nothin
And I promise you your attitudes somethin I never
wanted

You so rude, you and your Jimmy Choos you roll with your whole crew buchy(sp?) girl coppin attitude you say we threw cuz I don't give you stable or turn tables somethin like cane did able I'm talkin stabbing in the back you only with me for the fact that I rap so have to cast it with you like damn you tap that you think its whack cuz now I give 2 fucks Like curtis mayfield said Bitch I move on up

And I trust you got a man he's fufilling your vision but the look up on yout face still tell me somethings missing gotta have a heart to gamble on love but you'll never get it now you super with it callin me tryna kick it right, swivlin your neck like thats some shit that I like got attitude like some 6th grade girls in a fight but it's cool and we ain't kids girl this ain't gradeschool and in a year you'll be looking like you're boo boo da fool cuz we through haha
