Verse 1

I open my eyes the world seems a different place,
The colors are brighter and the air is sweet to taste.
See it's like I woke up from a nightmare that tied me down,
I was smothered and trapped inside a sleep way underground

Pre 1

It's time I learned to fall,
To say the word goodbye.
To feel the sunlight on my face,
Maybe that means...

Chorus

I'm ready to fly,
I wanna breathe in and breathe out and be who I am,
Let go of fear wanna feel alive.
I'm ready to fly,
The more that you hold me back you set me free,
You help my heart decide...
Maybe I'm, maybe I'm ready to fly.

Verse 2

Where is your faith, where is your love for me?
Why do you fight the things I imagine in my dreams?
See the poison is strong, an addiction is tough to break.
But love is the hardest thing I have ever had to shake.

Pre 2

It's time to break these chains,
To look you in the eye,
To tell you that it's over now,
Maybe that means...

Chorus

I'm ready to fly,
I wanna breathe in and breathe out and be who I am,
Let go of fear wanna feel alive.
I'm ready to fly,

The more that you hold me back you set me free,
You help my heart decide...
Maybe I'm, maybe I'm ready to fly.

Bridge

(Give me the strength to walk away)
(Give me the strength to stay the road ahead)
Even if it's a lonely place.
(Give me the hope to mend this heart)
(Give me the chance to see love smile, smile again)
To see love smile...

Pre 1

It's time I learned to fall,
To say the word goodbye.
To feel the sunlight on my face,
Maybe that means... Maybe that means

Chorus

I'm ready to fly,
I wanna breathe in and breathe out and be who I am,
Let go of fear wanna feel alive.
I'm ready to fly,
The more that you hold me back you set me free,
You help my heart decide...
Maybe I'm, maybe I'm I'm ready to fly.
