always knew that when we said good bye it wouldn't last forever always thought that i'd run into you and we'd get back together now your here
just like i imagined but never once did it cross my mind that you could move on you've found someone
it breaks my heart cuz you're so in love

i wish that my touch makes you smile just like that and i wish that i had you the way that she has cuz i still remember the love i left behind oh i wish i was her and you were mine i think somebody's try'na talk to me but i can't hear what they're saying all i can do is stare at you i don't even know why i'm staying never thought i'd cry to see you happy it's just i thought that your happiness was right here with me i know we're through it's no use still i can't help but feel

i wish that my touch makes you smile just like that (make you smile like that)
and i wish that i had you the way that she has (the way that she has) cuz i still remember the love that i left behind (i left behind)
the way that she has you (oh) i wish that was me (i wish that was me) there's no place on earth that i'd rather be (rather be)

i used to be right beside you (oh no) now i'm not even kept inside your heart (oh no) i put our love upon a shelf but now it's gone cuz you belong to someone else

makes you smile just like that (i wish i was her)
the way that she has you (the way that she has you babe)
that i left (i left oh i left behind) oh i wish i was her (i wish i was her) and you were mine (oh i wish you were mine) the way that you hold her i wish that was me there's no place on earth that i'd rather be

oh...oo
