Well, I'm setting up a camp just beside our bed
Gonna figure out all the things you said
All I've got is too much time
And they really got to bug my mind

So, I'm setting up a camp just beside our bed
Missing all the bits, and it makes me mad
All I've got is too much time
And it really starts to blow my mind

Because I fall to pieces every time
There's a sky and it's clouding the sunshine
So listen, darling
What the hell has gotten into you
I wanna know
It's cracking me up out of the blue
I'm on the low
Because I fall to pieces every time
There's a sky and it's clouding the sunshine
And it gets me every time

So, I'm setting up a camp just beside our bed
Gonna figure out all the things you said
They really got to bug my mind
So I'm trying to put the puzzle together
But I'm falling behind

Because I fall to pieces every time
There's a sky and it's clouding the sunshine
So come on, darling
What the hell has gotten into you
I wanna know
It's cracking me up out of the blue
I'm on the low
Because I fall to pieces every time
There's a sky and it's clouding the sunshine
So listen, darling
What the hell has gotten into you
I wanna know
It's cracking me up out of the blue
I'm on the low

Just listen, darling
What the hell has gotten into you
I wanna know

Because I fall to pieces every time
There's a sky and it's clouding the sunshine
And it gets me every time
