I'm ready for it to begin, letting all the sunshine in
Everybody is invited to the party
I'm ready for a shooting star, setting out to make it far
Ready for the money, making it look easy

And the music will go on and on forever
Making everything alright when we're together

I'm depending on you [x2]
I'm depending on all the little things you always do
To make my world go 'round, lift me to a higher ground
Keeping it together, rolling with the punches
I'm ready for it to explode, ready for the overload
Ready for the sunshine, ready for the country

And the music will go on and on forever
Making everything alright when we're together

I'm depending on you [x2]
I'm depending on all the little things you always do
[verse x2]

Oh yeah, ready for it to begin
Oh yeah, letting all the sunshine in
