Dream me up a dream where I'm floating the stream Wearing something quite obscene, such a sight for sore eyes

Far up in the sky, there's a kite flying so high
And it makes me wonder why I am in this water

I don't wanna wake up away from you
I climb the ladder to your love and I am getting higher
Something tells me that the world's on fire
I don't wanna wake up away from you
Every minute, every day, and every single hour
It is like the age of flower power

So let's join the parade, yea-yeah-yeah
Go have us a drink in the shade

So, dream me up a dream, take me where I've never been
See the sights I've never seen, things are getting better
Love is all around in every sense and every sound
And it's time to wear the crown, we belong together

I don't wanna wake up away from you
I climb the ladder to your love and I am getting higher
Something tells me that the world's on fire
I don't wanna wake up away from you
Every minute, every day, and every single hour
It is like the age of flower power

So let's join the parade, yea-yeah-yeah
Go have us a drink in the shade

I don't wanna wake up away from you
I climb the ladder to your love and I am getting higher
Something tells me that the world's on fire
I don't wanna wake up away from you
Every minute, every day, and every single hour
It is like the age of flower power

So let's join the parade, yea-yeah-yeah
Go have us a drink in the shade

So let's join the parade, ooh-oo-oo
Go have us a drink in the shade
