I can hear it coming closer
Sounds like music, I suppose I am
Intoxicated, my memory's faded
Good intentions seem outdated
I can feel it from the inside
A sensation, a revelation
Intoxicated, my memory's faded
Rock 'n roll is overrated

I gave myself away
Took what I could take
I should've hit the brakes
I thought I saw the light
So I took a bite
Which I couldn't swallow

How can it be that the litter on the street keeps shining?
Oh, and how can it be that the glitter that I see keeps blinding me?

I can see it from a distance
All its colors, overwhelming
I'll climb that rainbow, I'll wear a blindfold
Leaving all my stories untold

I gave myself away
Took what I could take
I should've hit the brakes
I thought I saw the light
So I took a bite
Which I couldn't swallow

How can it be that the litter on the street keeps shining?
Oh, and how can it be that the glitter that I see keeps
blinding me?

And how can it be that the litter on the street keeps shining?
And how can it be that the glitter that I see keeps
blinding me?

Keeps blinding me
