Maybe tomorrow, if not today [x2]
Outside my window, the world goes astray (yeah, yeah)
But maybe tomorrow, you'll walk on by and blow me
away
You'll walk on by and blow me away (yeah)

I need somebody to make my world go round
Rearranging the state I'm in, and lift me off the ground
I need somebody to make me want to smile
Read my mind like an open book
Cause for a little while, I'd lost my faith
In something oh so great

Maybe tomorrow, if not today [x2]
Outside my window, the world goes astray (yeah, yeah)
But maybe tomorrow, you'll walk on by and blow me
away
You'll walk on by and blow me away [x2]
You'll walk on by
