She's alright but sometimes she's so wrong
It's been like this for long, I tell you
I don't mind as long as it's okay
For her to be that way, I tell you

When I'm home, I call her on the phone
I don't like being alone, so I call her on the phone
When I'm high, I'm staring at the sky
I know she knows that I, I am permanently high

She's alright, she looks like Lois Lane
She's coming down like rain, I tell you
I don't mind as long as it's okay
For her to be that way, I tell you

When I'm home, I call her on the phone
I don't like being alone, so I call her on the phone
When I'm high, I'm staring at the sky
I know she knows that I, I am permanently high

When I'm home, I call her on the phone
I don't like being alone, so I call her on the phone
When I'm high, I'm staring at the sky
I know she knows that I, I am permanently high
