Sometimes the world revolves around you
Sometimes the sun is shining
For better for worse, I'd like to crown you
The best-looking girl of all good-looking girls in the world
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I believe you are the reason
For feeling this way I feel today
I believe you are the reason
For making my mind go so astray

And I wonder if anything could conquer this Wonder if it's never-ending
Too many times I've been heading for the great abyss
Falling from where I am standing

Sometimes the world revolves around you
Sometimes the sun is shining
For better for worse, I'd like to crown you
The best-looking girl of all good-looking girls in the
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I believe this is the season
For letting it go, this overload
I believe this is the season
For making my way from the undertow

And I wonder if anything can conquer this
Wonder if it's never-ending
Too many times I've been heading for the great abyss
Falling from where I am standing

Sometimes the world revolves around you
Sometimes the sun is shining
For better for worse, I'd like to crown you
The ultimate silver lining

Sometimes the world revolves around you
Sometimes the sun is shining

For better for worse, I'd like to crown you
The ultimate silver lining

We go on, and on, and on, we go
And everything will blow
Feeling brand new, just like you do, just like I do
Crash into each other

On, and on, and on, we go
And everything will blow
Feeling brand new, just like you do, just like we do now
