So this is where it ends
Or has it just begun?
Will it keep on going forever?
Are we doing this together?

I've got my best suit on
I'm shining like a star
And I'm gonna shine forever
If we're doing this together
Making the most of it all

And in the long run, if we overcome
We'll have another one for free
And when we're long gone, and all is said and done
We'll have another one for free

We've got the right connections
Free, doing everything we want
Free, moving in the right direction
Making the most of what we all suppose we deserve

So this is where it ends
Or has it just begun?
Will it keep on going forever?
Are we doing this together?
Making the most of it all
(hey)

And in the long run, if we overcome
We'll have another one for free
And when we're long gone, and all is said and done
We'll have another one for free
(hey, yeah)
