When The World Was A Younger Different Place
There Lived Man Just Like Us
And They Knew Neither Mirrors Or The Page
These Two Worlds They Could Not Touch

And They Said, Just Go Down, Straight To The Water
Son
Bend Down, Look At Your Own Reflection
Reach Down And Try To Touch The Other Worlds
But Your Hand Will Go On Through, Oh Yes Your Hand
Will Go
On
Through
And The Names, Yeah The Names Roll On...

So They Drank Water Cupped By The Leaves
In The Sea They Saw New Life
And The Worlds Reflected In Their Dreams
Were The Worlds Of Divine Touch

And They Said, Just Go Down, Straight To The Water
Bend Down, Look At Your Own Reflection
Reach Down And Try To Touch The Other Worlds
But Your Hand Will Go On Through, Oh Yes Your Hand
Will Go On
And The Names, Yeah The Names Roll On...
