So calm and yet so fast
You leave this world
Through my sores
I feel your painful lust
My life without my sense
I have to be born again.

[Chorus]

In some other time (At some other place)
At some other place
I will see your eyes
And I'll hear your breath.

[Chorus]

River of pain heading for me
When I'm weakest
It will be my dying angel
And my sun, and my sun.

[Chorus]

From this truth I can not run
In this agony
Release your heart.
From this truth I can not run
In this agony
Release your heart.
