Baby, don't tempt me to pass a long pathway to pleasure
Baby don't lure me to linger and lay down desire
Don't try to fire my heart with caresses and kisses
I'm leaving the track
'Cause it ain't worth the lonely road back

Baby don't make my mind helpless with mixed up emotions
Or criticize me or curse me long after I'm gone There's no use in offering visions of life 'round the corner
I'm leaving the track
'Cause it ain't worth the lonely road back

Baby you've given me memories to cherish long after All that I've left you are words that lead up to goodbye
Don't try to follow me over the distant horizon
I'm leaving the track
'Cause it ain't worth the lonely road back

I'm leaving the track
'Cause it ain't worth the lonely road back
No, I'm leaving the track
'Cause it ain't worth the lonely road back
