"Waiting On Death Row"

Guilt is not felt when the killer is me
Killing brings joy. That is no blasphemy
Trying to find a way to come back home
Death takes me by standing down on it's throne

Hell awaits you
Death waits too
Pain and Destiny
That's your misery

- CHORUS -

Violence has made a new pact of aggression
Makes the killing a new kind of obsession
Destruction is now a new kind of desire
Killing and killing I never get tired
Waiting on death row

Living my life full of pain and disgrace
The path of salvation, I can't find it's trace
Ticking slowly, I live to bestow
Cold winter cell, I walk the death row

Hell awaits you
Death waits too
Pain and Destiny
That's your misery

- CHORUS Â-
