"Boneless"

At least there's one little thing left that I want you to Know
One last thing left to say
It's 'cos I'm tired and lonely and my power's long gone
Yeah right, I hate the world today
You are my fuel
You are the gasoline
That keeps my motor goin' on
Yeah baby, I feel boneless tonight
But it is different, much easier if you are here with me
The world seems less like shit
Please be my reason, my power, my remedy
Without it I would quit
You are my fuel
You are the gasoline

That keeps my motor goin' on
Yeah baby, I feel boneless tonight
Feel boneless tonight
When there's too much bullshit to take
When I'm too weak to fight
It is always you who comes to me
Saying "everything is alright"
Baby, I feel boneless tonight
When this world's too complicated
Too frustrating and much too cold
It is always you who comes to me
Saying "you're not alone"
Baby, I feel boneless tonight
Yeah, I feel so boneless tonight
