Don't really know where to start
Having trouble finding my voice
Everybody needs someone
To be music through the noise
All the static of a life
Gets in our way, ties us in knots
And makes us afraid

I'm never gonna leave you
Standing all alone on some forgotten road
Waiting for a sign of mine to lead you home
Yeah, in these days people get abandoned
You feel you can't stand it
I won't walk away... and leave you stranded
Oh no, won't leave you stranded.

No one likes to be by themselves
Just before the sky's bound to fall
Baby, even heroes need help
When they're consumed by it all
Something always crashes and burns
And all we got left is us against the world
Don't ever forget

I'm never gonna leave you
Standing all alone on some forgotten road
Waiting for a sign of mine to lead you home
Yeah, in these days people get abandoned
You feel you can't stand it
I won't walk away... and leave you stranded
Yeah, won't leave you stranded, I won't

All the static of a life
Gets in our way, ties us in knots
Baby don't be afraid

I'm never gonna leave you
Standing all alone
Yeah, in these days people get abandoned
You feel you can't stand it
I won't walk away... and leave you stranded

Oh no no, standing all alone on some forgotten road
Waiting for a sign of mine to lead you home
Yeah, in these days people get abandoned
And you feel you can't stand it
I won't walk away and leave you stranded,
Oh no, won't leave you stranded, I won't
I won't I won't, won't leave you stranded
