They tore down the Berlin Wall
They let the hammer and sickle fall
They fitted me for a uniform
Had it ready the day I was born

I destroy everyone I love
I destroy everything I touch

I don't own my own skin
All I got is original sin
Brought down in a broken home
Mixed blood brittle bones

I destroy everyone I love
I destroy everything I touch

Love sex
Female hex
Open eyes
Empty legs
No release
Exist to cease
Gimme a knife
Break my teeth

They tore down the Berlin Wall
