Please stop crying
I know you know I've been lyin'
Please stop crying
I know your love for me is dying
There ain't nothing I wouldn't do
To get myself back close to you
Please stop cryin'
I'm sorry I hurt you

I betrayed you
You trusted me and I betrayed you
If I obeyed you
I can't be me so I betrayed you
I don't want nobody else
I just want you to myself
But I betrayed you
I'm sorry I hurt you

I'm losing more than I'll ever have
I feel bad, I feel so bad
I mess your head but you still possess me
Baby baby baby have mercy, have mercy on me

You got a heart of gold
You can't be bought or sold
You got a heart of gold baby
I got the blues for you
I give myself to you
I got the blues for you baby
(Repeat)

Oh yeah
Don't you believe me
Will you redeem me
Don't you believe me baby
(Repeat)

Stay with me (repeat to fade)
