Well if magic does exist than I'm thinking I found it Cause the way your looking at me gots my butterflies surrounding the room
Yes it's true oh I'm falling for you and there is nothing I can do
Your smile brightens up my day
Like the sun shining bright in the middle of may Yes I'm telling you this is so true
The way you make me feel is something like brand new

And I've been digging deep inside and looking up at the sky
And if I make the right decisions I can make this catch right
And I've been putting all my trust in you

I'm falling in love with someone I don't even know
Girl I don't even know you
It might be dumb
But all I know is how she makes me feel

It's almost valentines day,
And I've yet to see your face
I think I need a little more of your time
So I can figure out exactly how to make you mine
I'm talking keeping you in my heart 24/7
Wherever I go I'll always feel your presence
And I'm just hoping that you feel the same Cause girl my love for you's insane

And I've been digging deep inside and looking up at
the sky
And if I make the right decisions I can make this catch
And I've been putting all my trust in you

I'm falling in love with someone I don't even know
Girl I don't even know you
It might be dumb
But all I know is how she makes me feel

I'm falling in love with someone I don't even know
Girl I don't even know you
It might be dumb
But all I know is how she makes me feel

I feel brand new
